

FRONTSUMMIT®

THE FDRP E-LEARNING CENTER

The FrontSUMMIT™ e-learning center brings an efficient new approach to help you and your organization achieve greater success.

Used by academic institutes, wait staff, hiring managers and executives in the restaurant and foodservice industry, these e-learning offerings include all FDRP certification programs and tests plus culinary professional development training and even courses tailored to your specific needs.

FrontSUMMIT™ provides both managers and staff easy access to the tools they need to do their jobs more effectively.

WHY E-LEARN WITH FRONTSUMMIT®?

Cost Effective

- Shrink travel and related training costs
- Lessen disruption to work schedules
- Increased buying power with the options that include training for turnover employees

Management Control

- Track individual or group completion status of courses and certifications
- Administer announcements from FDRP-proprietary StaffNET™
- Objective and inexpensive way to test skill proficiency of existing staff or job applicants

Standardize Knowledge

- Ensure that lessons are taught in a clear and consistent manner
- Keep terminology and standards uniform, even across unit types
- Eliminate possibility of skipping key information

Service & Culinary Courses

- Educated servers reduce the training time required by chefs to tutor wait staff on culinary matters
- Self-Registration of employees or students is automatic freeing the trainer from the cumbersome task of uploading rosters or employee lists
